The following is Peltsvier's despatch concerning the Resisian attack on the French position:

SERARTOPOL, Dec. 8.

"I have received the following despatch from the General in command of the first division of the French corps. A body of 300 or 500 house at daybreak this a. m., attacked Begaur Kousta Skaraka. The enemy withdrew after a harp fusilade, which lasted for an hour and-a-half—Somo 30 prisoners were left in our hands, two of whom are officers. I mm not aware of the number killed and wonded. Our loss is minguificant." I announced to have commenced in Russia. At Warsaw and other places bank notes are refused.
